Growth 2000 Marketplaces Report 2021

The RetailX Growth 2000 Marketplace: 2021 Report examines how this year's Growth 2000 retailers use marketplaces to increase visibility and attract customers. Inside, we discover how these sellers are performing financially and the traffic they are receiving as a result of their marketplace presence.

European Marketplaces Market Report 2021

Marketplaces have come to dominate the ecommerce space over the past five years, with as many as 64% of UK consumers now routinely turning to marketplaces first for online shopping.

Brands and Marketplaces Report 2021

Online marketplaces have emerged as winners over the last year, providing easy one-stop shopping and reliable delivery during a time of seismic change and disruption. In fact, the latest RetailX research suggests that marketplaces have now increased their share of traffic to 55% of visitors to UK retailers and to 60% of visitors to European retailers.
